

Librarian Newsletter February 2023

“Libraries store the energy that fuels the imagination. They open up windows to the world and inspire us to explore and achieve, and contribute to improving our quality of life.” Sidney Shelton

National Library Lovers Month

Observances

- 2/1 World Read Aloud Day
- 2/4 Take Your Child to the Library Day
- 2/14 International Book Giving Day, Library Lovers Day, Read to Your Child Day
- 2/20 Clean Out Your Bookcase Day, National Student Volunteer Day
- 2/26 Tell a Fairy Tale Day, International Tongue Twister Contest Day

Program Schedule

February 20th – 24th: Student Volunteer Week

S.P.S. students are encouraged to volunteer at the library during operating hours.

Resolution to Read Contest

Starts February 1, 2023 to February 1, 2024 – Register to Read and Receive Rewards. Top 3 Readers for each age category. You must have an active patron account and check out books belonging to Shelton Public Library to enter this contest.

LOGO Contest

Contest Open for local artists to design a logo for the Shelton Public Library Website. Closing date for submissions will be June 1, 2023. Prize will be awarded if your logo is selected by the Shelton Public Library Board.

All Programs Listed Below will be scheduled from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

- 2/8 Making a Valentine with Cricut Maker, Scrabble
- 2/9 Decorating with Candy, Book Reading
- 2/14 Bingo and Tony’s Terrible Tongue Twisters to Tangle the Tongue
- 2/16 Tell a Fairy Tale – Reading and Creating
- 2/23 Scrabble, Book Reading

Contact Shelton Public Library by calling 308-647-5182 or email sheltonlibrary@nctc.net for the Resolution to Read and LOGO Contest.